

Worksheet 1.2: Whose Responsibility is it?

Description	Level(s) of Government	Department/Ministry (names may differ according to governing authority)
Responsible for managing the health care system.
Works towards a more peaceful and secure world by developing relationships with other countries.
Is responsible for the education network ; from pre-school to higher education. He encourages increasing the level of education of the population.
Provides and sustains cultural facilities such as art galleries, historic sites and theatres, as well as public spaces (parks and recreation centers).
Maintains safe and accessible roads and sidewalks, providing reliable public transportation.
Oversees the quality and monitoring of the safety of foods – from the field to the fork.
Specializes in sustainable development and the exploitation of natural resources, energy, minerals, metals, forests and earth sciences.
Promotes tourism and recreational experiences to citizens and visitors within and outside Canada.
Admits immigrants, visitors, foreign students and temporary workers.
Responsible for the transit and transportation system required to move people and goods safely, efficiently and sustainably.
Applies the tax law and ensures tax collection.
Sets and administers principles for health care; surveillance, prevention, control and research of disease outbreaks across Canada and the world.
Provides clean and safe drinking water to the public

Administers the judicial system, ensures the rule of law (respect for the law) and access to the justice system.
Provides emergency and protective services to the community, such as law enforcement and fire protection.
Sets, communicates and enforces workplace rules while encouraging the establishment of fair workplace conditions.

Description	Level(s) of Government	Department/Ministry (names may differ according to governing authority)
Responsible for managing the health care system.	Provincial	Health
Works towards a more peaceful and secure world by developing relationships with other countries	Federal	Global Affairs
Is responsible for the education network ; from pre-school to higher education. He encourages increasing the level of education of the population.	Provincial	Education and Higher Education
Provides and sustains cultural facilities such as art galleries, historic sites and theatres, as well as public spaces (parks and recreation centers).	Municipal	Parks and Community/Recreational Services
Maintains safe and accessible roads and sidewalks, providing reliable public transportation.	Municipal	Municipal Works/Roads and Sidewalks
Oversees the quality and monitoring of the safety of foods – from the field to the fork.	Federal	Agriculture
Specializes in sustainable development and the exploitation of natural resources, energy, minerals, metals, forests and earth sciences.	Federal/provincial	Natural Resources
Promotes tourism and recreational experiences to citizens and visitors within and outside Canada.	Provincial (municipal also accepted)	Jobs, Tourism and Skills Training
Admits immigrants, visitors, foreign students and temporary workers.	Federal, occasionally provincial	Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship
Responsible for the transit and transportation system required to move people and goods safely, efficiently and sustainably.	Federal (provincial & municipal also accepted)	Transportation and Infrastructure
Applies the tax law and ensures tax collection.	Federal/provincial	Canada Revenue Agency/ Revenu Québec
Sets and administers principles for health care; surveillance, prevention, control and research of disease outbreaks across Canada and the world.	Federal	Health
Provides clean and safe drinking water to the public	Municipal	Drinking Water
Administers the judicial system, ensures the rule of law (respect for the law) and access to the justice system.	Provincial	Justice

Provides emergency and protective services to the community, such as law enforcement and fire protection.	Municipal	Police and Fire Services
Sets, communicates and enforces workplace rules while encouraging the establishment of fair workplace conditions.	Provincial	Labour, Employment and Social Solidarity