

Democracy Bootcamp GETCA 2025

Barnett House (ATA), 11010 142 St NW, Edmonton, AB, T5N 2R1

8:30 am - 9:00 am	Welcome and warm-up activity
9:00 am - 9:50 am	Student Vote Canada An overview of the program and participant outcomes, followed by a preview of lesson resources for the 2025 federal election and discussion about best practices.
9:50 am - 10:05 am	Break
10:05 am - 11:15 am	Discussing Political Issues with PoliTalks Review of PoliTalks resources with a focus on exploring how our cognitive biases can make it difficult to talk about politics and what we can do to make those discussions easier.
11:15 am - 11:20 am	Movement break
11:20 am - 12:20 pm	Tipping Point Participants will engage with Tipping Point , a new community consultation simulation designed to strengthen students' decision-making, perspective-taking, and consensus-building skills.
12:20 pm - 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 pm - 2:00 pm	The State of Democracy in 2025 Experts discuss current challenges to democracy, including growing divisions, disinformation and distrust in institutions, as well as strategies for how to address them. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Jana Pruden (moderator)</li><li>• Margie Patrick</li><li>• John Santos</li><li>• Laura Stolte</li><li>• Graham Thomson</li></ul>
2:00 pm - 2:15 pm	Break

2:15 pm - 3:25 pm

CTRL-F: Digital Media Literacy in an Age of AI

This session explores how new AI tools work and how they can be used responsibly in the classroom, followed by practical tips on how to identify AI-generated content.

3:25 pm - 3:30 pm

Closing remarks